President's Message

By Karen Winney

I do not have much to report this month as no one from our Chapter was able to attend the mid-winter business meeting this year. As soon as I hear anything from Grand, I will pass it on to our chapter members.

As you hopefully noticed, we are trying something different for our February meeting; a Sunday Brunch at the Piedmont Bistro. Please let Rick know if you will be attending so I include everyone when I make the reservations. I hope to see you there.

February Birthdays

Cupid is associated with Valentine's Day because he was the son of Venus, the Roman god of love and beauty.

Cupid appears holding a bow and arrow, because he is believed to use magical arrows to inspire feelings of love.

Impress your Valentine, with your knowledge about Valentine's Day with this trivia, Facts, and FAQ's.....

While in prison for performing Christian marriages, St. Valentine befriended Julia, the daughter of the jailer. When the emperor Claudius discovered that he was still preaching Christianity from his jail cell, he was executed (270 A.D.). In his last letter to the jailer's daughter before his execution, he signed it "From your Valentine", which is where the holiday got its name.

During the Roman Festival of Lupercalia in the 15th century, young men held a lottery to decide which girl would be theirs.

In the 17th century, even married people would take a Valentine.... sometimes it wasn't their mate!

110 million roses, the majority red, will be sold and delivered within a three-day time period.

California produces 60 percent of American roses. However, the vast number of Valentine's Day roses are imported, mostly from South America.

73% of people who buy flowers for Valentine's Day are men, while only 27 percent are women.

15% of U.S. women send themselves flowers on Valentine's Day.

About 1 billion Valentine's Day cards are exchanged each year. That's the largest seasonal card-sending occasion of the year, next to Christmas.

In Victorian times, it was considered bad luck to sign a Valentine's Day card.

One-third of all Valentine cards are accompanied by gifts.

About 3% of pet owners will give Valentine's Day gifts to their pets.

Approximately 25 percent of Valentine's Day cards are humorous.

By the numbers: 70 percent of those celebrating the holiday give a card, followed by a telephone call (49 percent), gift (48 percent), special dinner (37 percent), candy (33 percent) restaurant meal (30 percent), and flowers (19 percent).

In the United States, 64 percent of men do not make plans in advance for a romantic Valentine's Day with their sweethearts.

Teachers will receive the most Valentine's Day cards, followed by children, mothers, wives, and then, sweethearts.

The oldest love poem was written on a clay tablet It dates back to ancient Sumeria, around 3500 B.C.

In 1866, candy manufacturer NECCO made the first "Conversation Hearts", originally called "Motto Hearts". Eight billion of these little candies are sold between New Years day and February 14.
